

EURYTHMY TEACHER

We are seeking a Eurythmist for classes from Prep to Class 8.

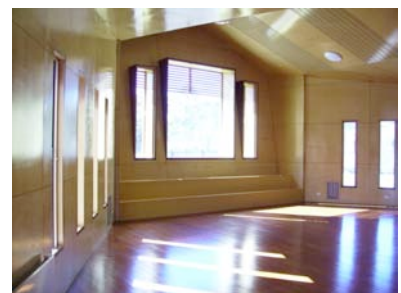

Enjoy excellent employment conditions in a well established and supportive school with a newly constructed purpose built Eurythmy room. We are happy to discuss conditions which may be payed at a casual rate or calculated as permanent part time with paid school holidays and sick leave entitlements. The position can be for 4 to 8 hours of class teaching over one to three days, as negotiated

We are a thriving Steiner school on the outskirts of Castlemaine, a progressive arts community. Join a committed team of highly skilled Steiner educationalists. Our purpose designed Eurythmy building is an outstanding space with a fine piano, excellent storage and wonderful natural light. An accompanist is also available.

The successful applicant should hold current VIT registration although the school will support the required application to VIT if necessary.
